PASTOR'S NOTES

Can you relate to Job's frustration in the first reading? He experiences life as a drudgery? He uses descriptive language. "He is a slave who longs for shade, a hireling who waits for his wages." Working hard for a paycheck and stuck on this endless wheel. "If in bed I say, 'When shall I arise?' then the night drags on. I am filled with restless until the dawn." "I shall not see happiness again." Can you relate to moments like that in your life? We can experience the drudgery of life, the struggles of work, the restless nights of anxiety and worry. We can teeter on the verge of hopelessness. I certainly have experienced moments like that. How does the Word of God respond to that lament in the liturgy? "Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted." Have you been brokenhearted? Saddened because of a lost relationship? Have you been disappointed about choices in your life? God want to speak a word of HOPE into your heart. Jesus, the divine physician, can bring healing into our lives.

The healing of Jesus takes supernatural Faith. We must believe that Jesus cares about our situation, our difficulties, our struggles and even our sins. Often sin is the source of our wounds. Jesus wants to bring forgiveness, mercy, encouragement, and hope. We are loved by God. When I see my nephew hurting, my heart goes out to him. How can I help him heal? How much more does God want to heal our broken hearts and shattered lives?

The healing ministry of Jesus continues today through the Body of Christ, the Church. The Word of God is medicine for our soul. The Sacraments are powerful means of healing. Jesus touches us through them. The Sacrament of Reconciliation is the place where we can unburden our conscience and let go of the burden of guilt that weighs us down from sin. The Sacrament of Holy Eucharist is an intimate way Jesus touches us. Jesus dwell inside of us. His love radiates through our Body and Soul if we allow Him and welcome Him in Faith. The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick encourages people who are suffering with a serious illness or perhaps are approaching death. Jesus continues to sustain us and show us his love.

This week, ask our Lord, "Where do I need the healing of Jesus in my life?" Then ask him for his help.

Have a great week!
Fr. Keith

WE ARE GRATEFUL

The Easton Area Society of St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry thanks you for your continued generosity as you help us feed our neighbors. During 2023, you donated 3,411 pounds of food which included 1,530 pounds that were donated by families who participated in the Reverse Advent Calendar Food Drive. At this time, our greatest needs are for spaghetti sauce, jelly, oatmeal and canned fruit and vegetables. Your monetary contributions helped to make it possible to buy extra food and diapers for our families. The Food Pantry would not exist without the kind and generous support of Father Keith and St. Anthony's and Our Lady of Mercy Parishes. Any questions, please contact Dennis or Ellen Potter at 610-253-0814 or dgpelp@rcn.com

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL

"The Eucharist is the secret of my day. It gives strength and meaning to all my activities of service to the Church and to the whole world ... Let Jesus present in the Blessed Sacrament speak to your hearts. It is he who is the true answer of life that you seek. He stays here with us: He is God with us. Seek him without tiring, welcome him without reserve, love him without interruption: today, tomorrow, forever!"

— Saint Pope John Paul II Sept. 27, 1997

EUCCHARISTIC MIRACLES DISPLAY

The Eucharistic Miracles Display is a traveling museum-like exhibition featuring the Eucharistic Miracles as chronicled by Blessed Carlo Acutis (1991-2006).

Blessed Carlo was a teenager from Italy who developed a website dedicated to the documented and scientifically scrutinized occasions when the Holy Eucharist changed in its physical appearance, reminding us that the bread and wine of the Mass truly become the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Eucharistic Miracles Display will be on hosted by Our Lady of Mercy on Saturday, March 2nd from 3:00 – 6:30 PM and Sunday, March 3rd from 9:00 AM – 2:00 PM. All are welcome!

You are encouraged to pray the Novena to Blessed Carlo Acutis as a supplement to visiting the display. Copies can be found in the rear of the Church.

February 4th Reflection

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

As we read or hear about the miraculous healings Jesus performs, both among His inner circle of friends and with anyone in need, we know He can meet any need we may have of healing. Do not be lulled into doubt by the fact that these stories took place over 2,000 years ago. That kind of thinking only damages our trust. For God a thousand years are like a day. And the Bible tells us that “Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever.” If doubt starts to damage your trust, remember that the word “gospel” means “good news.” That’s such a matter of fact that-pardon the pun-you can “bank on it.”

Once upon a time two young girls were talking and one said that she had ten pennies. The other girl looked at her hand and only saw five. She said, “You only have five pennies, silly.” Then the first girl replied “I have five and my father told me he would give me five more tonight. So I have ten.” She understood that her father’s promise was as good as done.

God love you and give you His peace.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

ESCRITORIO DEL PASTOR

¿Te sientes identificado con la frustración de Job en la primera lectura? ¿Siente la vida como un trabajo penoso? Utiliza un lenguaje descriptivo. "Es un esclavo que anhela sombra, un asalariado que espera su salario". Trabajando duro por un sueldo y atrapado en esta rueda sin fin. "Si en la cama digo: "¿Cuándo me levantaré?", la noche se alarga. Estoy lleno de inquietud hasta el amanecer". "No volveré a ver la felicidad." ¿Te sientes identificado con momentos así en tu vida? Podemos experimentar la monotonía de la vida, las luchas del trabajo, las noches inquietas de ansiedad y preocupación. Podemos estar al borde de la desesperanza. Yo he vivido momentos así. ¿Cómo responde la Palabra de Dios a ese lamento en la liturgia? "Alabado sea el Señor, que sana a los quebrantados de corazón". ¿Has tenido el corazón roto? ¿Triste por la pérdida de una relación? ¿Te has sentido decepcionado por decisiones de tu vida? Dios quiere dirigir una palabra de ESPERANZA a tu corazón. Jesús, el médico divino, puede traer sanidad a nuestras vidas.

La curación de Jesús requiere una fe sobrenatural. Debemos creer que Jesús se preocupa por nuestra situación, nuestras dificultades, nuestras luchas e incluso nuestros pecados. A menudo el pecado es la fuente de nuestras heridas. Jesús quiere traer perdón, misericordia, ánimo y esperanza. Dios nos ama. Cuando veo a mi sobrino herido, mi corazón se compadece de él. ¿Cómo puedo ayudarlo a sanar? ¿Cuánto más quiere Dios sanar nuestros corazones rotos y nuestras vidas destrozadas?

El ministerio de curación de Jesús continúa hoy a través del Cuerpo de Cristo, la Iglesia. La Palabra de Dios es medicina para nuestra alma. Los sacramentos son poderosos medios de curación. Jesús nos toca a través de ellos. El Sacramento de la Reconciliación es el lugar donde podemos desahogar nuestra conciencia y soltar el peso de la culpa que nos agobia por el pecado. El Sacramento de la Sagrada Eucaristía es una forma íntima en la que Jesús nos toca. Jesús habita dentro de nosotros. Su amor irradia a través de nuestro Cuerpo y Alma si se lo permitimos y lo acogemos con Fe. El Sacramento de la Unción de los Enfermos anima a las personas que padecen una enfermedad grave o tal vez se acercan a la muerte. Jesús sigue sosteniéndonos y mostrándonos su amor.

Esta semana, pregúntale al Señor: "¿Dónde necesito la curación de Jesús en mi vida?". Luego pídele su ayuda.

¡Que tengas una buena semana!
P. Keith

LA IMPORTANCIA DE LA ADORACION EUCARISTICA

La importancia de la Adoración Eucarística se manifiesta en el hecho de que la iglesia tiene un Ritual que la regula: El derecho de Exposición y Bendición Eucarística, esta es una extensión de la Adoración del Santísimo Sacramento que ocurre en cada Misa: "He aquí el Cordero de Dios, he aquí el que quita el pecado de mundo. Bienaventurados los llamados a la cena del Cordero". La exposición del Santísimo Sacramento fluye del sacrificio de la Misa y sirve para profundizar nuestra hambre de Comunión con Cristo y el resto de la Iglesia. El Rito concluye con la bendición del ministro ordenando bendiciendo a los fieles con el Santísimo Sacramento.
