PASTOR'S NOTES

A man is wandering through a desert with bottles of water on his shoulder. He conserves his water careful until it is all gone and then he begins to get thirsty. That thirst gets deeper and deeper until he sees a pump and runs to it. He lifts the handle and pulls it down but all he hears is the sound of metal on metal. He starts to panic. Then he sees a tin can at the bottom of the pump and in the tin can is a message. "Dear traveler do not despair there is enough water here, just follow the instructions. Lift the handle of the pump, bring it down and when you hear the sound of metal on metal discouraging you here's what you do. Under the pump in front of you there is buried under the sand a bottle of water. Do not despair. Pick up the bottle of water pour it into the cylinder and start priming the pump. The moisture will get the system to work. A rush of water will start gushing out of the pump. You can drink all of the water you want, fill all your bottles but do not forget to fill up the bottle again and leave it for the next passerby. Warning: you're going to be tempted, when you see this one bottle of water, to drink it. But you'll be so thirsty again and so will everyone else who goes by. Empty it out as instructed and you will have all the water you want and so will everybody else going by"....

What would you do? Would you follow the directions or drink the water? I always loved this story as a reflection on trust. My initial feelings of thirst may lead me to one conclusion. However, not acting impulsively leads to an abundance of water.

Today's readings invite us to trust God regardless of the circumstances. God will provide for us but we must act in that confidence like the widow in the Gospel.

Have a great week!
Fr. Keith

*November -
Month of the Holy Souls*

All powerful God, whose mercy is never withheld, look kindly on all who have departed this life and number them among your saints for evermore.

It is our certain faith that your Son, who died on the cross, was raised from the dead, the first fruits of all who have fallen asleep.

Grant that all who have gone to their rest in Christ may share in the joy of his Resurrection. I particularly remember (pause) ..... and all the Faithful Departed.

The Lord bless them and keep them.

The Lord make his face shine upon them and be gracious to them.

The Lord lift up his countenance upon them and give them peace.

Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May they rest in peace.

Amen.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

ESCRITORIO DEL PASTOR

Un hombre deambula por un desierto con botellas de agua al hombro. Conserva el agua con cuidado hasta que se acaba y entonces empieza a tener sed. Esa sed se hace cada vez más profunda hasta que ve una bomba y corre hacia ella. Levanta la manivela y tira de ella hacia abajo, pero lo único que oye es el sonido de metal contra metal. Empieza a asustarse. Entonces ve una lata en el fondo de la bomba y en la lata hay un mensaje. «Querido viajero, no desesperes, aquí hay agua suficiente, sólo tienes que seguir las instrucciones. Levanta la manivela de la bomba, bájala y cuando oigas el sonido de metal contra metal que te desanima esto es lo que tienes que hacer. Debajo de la bomba frente a ti hay enterrada bajo la arena una botella de agua. No desesperes. Coge la botella de agua, viértela en el cilindro y empieza a cebar la bomba. La humedad hará que el sistema funcione. Un chorro de agua empezará a brotar de la bomba. Puedes beber toda el agua que quieras, llenar todas las botellas, pero no olvides volver a llenar la botella y dejarla para el siguiente transeúnte. Advertencia: vas a tener la tentación, cuando veas esta única botella de agua, de bebértela. Pero volverás a tener mucha sed y todos los que pasen por allí también. Vacíala como se te indica y tendrás toda el agua que quieras y todos los que pasen por allí también»....

¿Qué harías? ¿Seguirías las instrucciones o te beberías el agua? Siempre me ha gustado esta historia como reflexión sobre la confianza. Mi sensación inicial de sed puede llevarme a una conclusión. Sin embargo, no actuar impulsivamente conduce a la abundancia de agua.

Las lecturas de hoy nos invitan a confiar en Dios independientemente de las circunstancias. Dios proveerá para nosotros, pero debemos actuar con esa confianza como la viuda del Evangelio.

¡Que tengan una buena semana!

P.Keith

La importancia de la Adoración Eucarística se manifiesta en el hecho de que la iglesia tiene un Ritual que la regula: El derecho de Exposición y Bendición Eucarística, esta es una extensión de la Adoración del Santísimo Sacramento que ocurre en cada Misa: "He aquí el Cordero de Dios, he aquí el que quita el pecado de mundo. Bienaventurados los llamados a la cena del Cordero". La exposición del Santísimo Sacramento fluye del sacrificio de la Misa y sirve para profundizar nuestra hambre de Comunión con Cristo y el resto de la Iglesia. El Rito concluye con la bendición del ministro ordenando bendiciendo a los fieles con el Santísimo Sacramento.
